Decode the Divine Family — Symbolism Investigation

Carefully observe the traditional Durga idol tableau and investigate the significance of:

- Goddess Durga's ten arms and weapons.
- The lion and Mahishasura.
- Lord Ganesha's elephant head, trunk and large belly.
- Goddess Lakshmi, Goddess Saraswati and their respective symbols.
- Lord Kartikeya and his mount.

Think deeper: What values or life lessons do these symbols communicate? Explain at least five symbols in your own words, distinguishing traditional beliefs from your personal interpretation.

Hindi

1. दुर्गा पूजा में आपके द्वारा किए गए भ्रमण या यात्रा को डायरी शैली में लिखें।

(अपने पाठ्य पुस्तक पाठ 12 'रमन की डायरी' से सहयोग ले सकते हैं।)
उपरोक्त कार्य आप अपनी हिंदी कॉपी में करेंगे।

Sanskrit

Maths

During Durga Puja, a school organises a beautiful celebration. The students decorate the school with flowers, diyas, and colourful lights. They arrange 8 rows of flowers, with 25 flowers in each row. They also arrange 150 diyas and 200 decorative lights. The students distribute sweets among visitors and use whole-number properties to make calculations easier.

Answer the following questions based on the case study.
(a) Calculate the total number of flowers using the distributive property by splitting 25 into 20 and 5.

(b) Show that adding the numbers of diyas and decorative lights follows the commutative property of addition.
(c) If the students receive 350 more flowers, express the total number of flowers using the associative property of addition, taking the original 200 flowers as one group.
(d) If no additional diyas are added to the arrangement of 150 diyas, which property of whole numbers is illustrated by $150+0=150150+0=150$?
(e) If the school prepares 12 boxes containing 10 sweets each, use the multiplication property of zero to find the number of sweets in zero additional boxes.

Heritage Detectives: Tracing the Origins of Durga Puja

Case File: The Mystery of the First Grand Durga Puja

Imagine you are a young history detective! Your mission is to discover where one of Bengal's earliest grand Durga Puja celebrations took place.

While exploring historical accounts, you learn that Raja Kangsa Narayan of Taherpur, in present-day Nadia district of West Bengal, is traditionally associated with one of the earliest grand Durga Puja celebrations in Bengal. Today, Durga Puja is celebrated with great enthusiasm, especially in Kolkata, where artistic pandals, traditional rituals and community participation make the festival remarkable.

Your task is to use your observation skills and map-reading abilities to investigate this cultural heritage.

Activity : Become a Map Detective!

On an outline map of India and a map of West Bengal.

1: Locate West Bengal on the map of India

2: Find Nadia district and mark Taherpur.

3: Locate Kolkata, a major centre of modern Durga Puja celebrations.

4: Draw an arrow connecting the historical location, Taherpur, with Kolkata.
